Case No. 3:22-cv-01213

PLAINTIFFS' FIRST SET OF EXPEDITED PRELIMINARY-INJUNCTION RELATED INTERROGATORIES TO DEFENDANT JEN EASTERLY

Plaintiffs State of Missouri and State of Louisiana, by and through counsel, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures and the Court's Order of July 12, 2022, Doc. 34, request that Defendant Jen Easterly answer these Interrogatories in writing within thirty days. These Interrogatories are deemed to be continuing in nature and should be supplemented as required by Defendant's obligation under the Rules.

DEFINITIONS

A. "And," "or" and "and/or" and any other conjunctions or disjunctions used herein shall be read both conjunctively and disjunctively so as to require the production of all Documents (as hereinafter defined) responsive to all or any part of each particular request.

B. "Any," "each," "every," and "all" shall be read to be inclusive and to require the production of each and every Document (hereinafter defined) responsive to the particular request.

C. “Content Modulation” means any action by any Social-Media Platform to limit, restrict, or eliminate distribution of speech or content determined to be misinformation or sanction a speaker for speech or content determined to be misinformation. “Content Modulation” includes any form of restriction on access, censorship, suppression, or modulation of speakers, viewpoints, speech, and/or content by any Social-Media Platform, including any reference to or discussion of any speech or content considered to be Misinformation, or any speaker considered to be a purveyor of Misinformation. “Content Modulation” includes any form of blocking, deterring, deleting, suspending, suppressing, reducing the exposure of, and/or restricting or limiting access to, any speech, content, or speaker on social media, including but not limited to termination of account(s) or channel(s), permanent or temporary suspension of account(s) or channel(s), removal of content or posting(s), issuing strike(s) or warning(s) against account(s) or speaker(s), suppression of content, de-boosting, de-emphasizing, de-monetizing, deindexing, downlisting, shadow-banning, limiting number(s) of followers or subscribers, affixing advisory label(s) or warning label(s) to content, preventing the amplification of content, requiring additional click(s) to access content, and/or reducing or restricting the distribution of content in any way; and it includes, but is not limited to, the use or adjustment of algorithm(s) to achieve any of the foregoing.

D. “CDC” means the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and any officer, official, employee, or agent of the CDC, as well as all of its divisions, agencies, boards, employees, contractors, and any subordinate agency or entity.

E. “CISA” means the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency within DHS, and any officer, official, employee, or agent of CISA, as well as all of its divisions, agencies, boards, employees, contractors, and any subordinate agency or entity.

F. “Communication” means any disclosure, transfer, or exchange of information, expression, or opinion, however made, including oral, graphic, written, or electronic transmittal of information.

G. “Content” means any material, including but not limited to messages, videos, photographs, and sound files, posted or sent by users on Social-Media Platform(s).

H. “Defendant” means President Joseph R. Biden, Jr., White House Press Secretary Jennifer Psaki, Surgeon General Vivek Murthy, HHS Secretary Xavier Becerra, NIAID Director and White House Science Advisor Anthony Fauci, DHS Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas, Director Jen Easterly, Director Nina Jankowicz, all in their official capacity, and the departments and agencies known as HHS, DHS, NIAID, CDC, and CISA.

I. “DHS” means the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, as identified in 5 U.S.C. § 101, and all of its divisions, agencies, boards, employees, contractors, and any subordinate agency or entity, including CISA and the Disinformation Governance Board, as well as any officer, official, employee, or agent of DHS.

J. “Document” means without limitation, any written, recorded, graphic, or other material, however produced or reproduced, whether or not claimed to be privileged against discovery on any grounds, including, but not limited to, material in the forms of reports, statements, records (including any workflow software record), agreements, lists, memoranda, correspondence, sound and/or video recordings (or transcripts of recordings), appointment calendars, appointment invitations and responses, worksheets, emails, computer files, or any other documents of any kind whatsoever, irrespective of form. All attachments or enclosures to a document are deemed to be part of such document. “Document” and “Communication” include responsive documents retained on personal devices and/or in personal email accounts or other personal accounts.

K. “HHS” means the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, as identified in 5 U.S.C. § 101, and all of its divisions, agencies, boards, employees, contractors, and any subordinate agency or entity, including CDC and NIAID, as well as any officer, official, employee, or agent of HHS.

L. “Identify” means when referring to: (a) a person, to state the name, his or her employer, job title, team or working group, email address, and present or last known address and telephone number; (b) a document, to state its date, its author(s) and addressees(s), and its nature and substance with sufficient particularity to enable it to be identified; (c) a communication, if other than a document, to state the mode of communication, (e.g., face-to-face, telephonic, email), the date and place thereof, to identify the person(s) who were present at or participated in, or who have knowledge or information relating to each event or occurrence, and to state the general subject matter thereof; (d) a meeting, state the date, time, place, participants, and topic(s) discussed.

M. “Including” means including, but not limited to.

N. “Information” means data, documents, communications, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, records generated by individuals or machines, or the compilation of any of the foregoing stored in any medium, including electronically stored information.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. If your response to a request is that you do not have possession, custody, or control of a document or communication, please describe the efforts you have made to locate the document and identify who has control of the document and its location.

2. In the event that any information requested is withheld on the basis of a claim of privilege, state the ground(s) of the privilege claimed with sufficient particularity to evaluate the claim, and, if any documents are claimed to be privileged, set forth the author, addressee, indicated or blind copied, number of pages, attachments or appendices, all persons to whom distributed or shown or explained, present custodian, and a general description (e.g., "letter" or "memorandum") of the document.

3. Any information not provided on the basis that the disclosure would be burdensome or oppressive should be identified by stating the approximate number of documents to be produced, the approximate number of person-hours to be incurred in the identification, and the estimated cost of responding to the request. If a reasonable alternative can be identified, Plaintiffs will meet and confer on that matter.

4. Each copy or duplicate of a document bearing initials, stamps, comments or notations of any character which are not part of the original text shall be considered a separate document. Additionally, all drafts (whether typed, handwritten or otherwise) made or prepared in connection with any document shall be considered a separate document.

5. Documents kept in an electronic or digital format should be produced with all metadata and delivered in their original format or in a manner agreed to by counsel.

6. Emails must identify all recipients and include attachments, previous threads, and forwards.

7. The singular of any noun includes the plural.

8. Unless otherwise directed, these requests ask for discoverable materials from January 1, 2020 to the present.
